READ THE ENTIRE BIBLE THIS YEAR!

Only 20 Minutes a Day to Know the Power and Wonder of God's Word! With Bible in a Year: Your Daily Encounter with God you can read through the entire Bible in a single year! The simple format of "Bible in a Year" features daily readings and beautiful reflections from renowned Biblical scholars. Short, insightful reflections will lead you to prayer and help plant God's Word deep in your heart.

There are several ways you might like to use the daily readings:

- 1. Bible in one year, once a day: Follow the plan. Read each day's readings during your daily Bible reading time to finish the whole Bible in a year.
- 2. Bible in one year, twice a day: Follow the plan, but in two daily sections. Read the Old Testament in the morning and the Wisdom literature and New Testament in the evening.
- 3. Bible in two years: Read the Old Testament the first year, then the Wisdom literature and New Testament the second year.

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH PRAYER

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

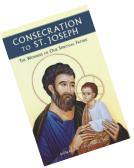

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

With a Father's Heart

With the Apostolic Letter "Patris corde" ("With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis recalls the 150th anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To mark the occasion, the Holy Father has proclaimed a "Year of Saint Joseph" from today, 8 December 2020, to 8 December 2021. Purchase your copy of the Consecration to St Joseph at MOSACK'S!

CELEBRATE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

National Catholic Schools Week is an annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. The observance starts the last Sunday in January and runs all week, which in 2021 will be January 31st—February 6th. This year's theme is Faith, Excellence, Service. Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, and activities which may look different in a pandemic year. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation.

MOSACK"S supports all educators, principals, teachers, class room aides, and parents who challenge and form young minds. Choose from our selection of Inspirational Posters, Religious Stickers, Children's Liturgy of the Word, Catechisms, Prayer Books, Picture Books, Puzzles, Statues, Magnets, and more!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Saint Pope John Paul II initiated the day in 1992 to encourage people to pray for those who suffer from illness and for their caregivers. This year more than ever before we join in prayer for relief from the ravages of the Corona Virus and the health and well being of all who suffer.

"To Mary, Mother of tender love, we wish to entrust all those who are ill in body and soul, that she may sustain them in hope. We ask her also to help us to be welcoming to our sick brothers and sisters. The Church knows that she requires a special grace to live up to her evangelical task of serving the sick. May our prayers to the Mother of God see us united in an incessant plea that every member of the Church may live with love the vocation to serve life and health. May the Virgin Mary intercede for this Twenty-sixth World Day of the Sick; may she help the sick to experience their suffering in communion with the Lord Jesus; and may she support all those who care for them. To all, the sick, to healthcare workers and to volunteers, I cordially impart my Apostolic Blessing. (Pope John Paul II)

CHOOSING A BIBLE TRANSLATION THAT'S RIGHT FOR YOU—CHRISTIAN BIBLES:

- NASB –New American Standard Bible is highly regarded for its literal accuracy. It's great for word study because it pays close attention to the wording and structure of the original Hebrew and Greek and attempts to use words consistently.
- AMP- Amplified Bible uses additional words in brackets, parentheses and italics within the text to help readers understand .
- ESV English Standard Version is essentially literal and noted for its "word-for-word" accuracy and capturing the style of each Biblical writer.
- KJV-King James Version is the first authorized English translation, published for four centuries. The choice for those wanting a traditional bible, good for study because of the huge selection of reference works that are available for it—also widely used for memorizing verses and for worship.
- NKJV New King James Version maintains the structure of the original KJV, with updated language for today's modern reader.
- HCSB Holman Christian Standard Bible utilizes global modern English while avoiding slang, regionalisms and any social or cultural agendas.
- NIV New International Version is a modern English translation that is easy to understand and rich with detail found in the original language. It is ideal for study, preaching and reading.
- NLT New Living Translation is an authoritative Bible translation which breathes life into even the most difficult passages, it's words speak directly to the heart of readers.
- MSG—The Message is an innovative paraphrase of the Bible in free natural language that is often surprising and grabs the reader's attention.

CATHOLIC BIBLES:

NABRE– New American Bible Revised Edition is one of the easiest to understand . It is perfect for everyday use and used at Mass.

NRSV– New Revised Standard Version is a literal English translation with gender inclusive language and uses "God" and "Christ" rather than "he".

DUEY-RHEIMS BIBLE is a literal English translation from the Latin Vulgate Bible of St. Jerome that pre-dates the KJV. It is considered one of the most beautiful poetic and accurate translations. And is ideal for those who enjoy history and a classical writing style.

NEW JERUSALEM BIBLE is an English translation which stresses dynamic equivalence highlighting the idea and meaning of a text rather than literal translation of words.

IGNATIUS BIBLE uses modern language with an informative commentary that is popular with Catholics interested in studying thr Bible. Notes include information on how passages differ from Protestant Bibles.

GOOD NEWS BIBLE uses a very modern dynamic equivalency to communicate the message and idea of the text.

NAVARRE BIBLE is put together by scholars at the University of Navarre Spain. It includes informative explanations and commentaries that provide intellectual and historical insight that are ideal for Bible study.

Repent and Believe the Good News

LENT BEGINS Feb. 17th

The word "Lent" comes from an Old English term that means "Springtime". Like the new life that is born in the spring, the season of Lent calls each of us to renew our life in Christ as we look forward to Easter renewal and the Resurrection. How will we spread the Christian message of salvation? This year, let us use the six weeks of this holy season to join in solidarity with our Christian brothers and sisters around the world who are praying, fasting, and giving alms as we await the resurrection of the Lord. Together, we can make our world a better place!

PRAYER:

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus: Thessalonians 5:16-18

The ashes we receive on Ash Wednesday signify our entering into Lent—we embrace Jesus' journey: the cross of suffering and the promise of resurrection. Our repentance is a call to proper relationship between God and ourselves and between one another.

Jesus teaches us the importance of prayer. He prays 17 times in the gospels—a model for us today. Scriptures record Jesus praying often: in the morning, at meal time, in his encounters with others and at night. He prays during critical events in his life and before ministering to people in need.

Prayer was his connection to his Father in heaven. So too, prayer is our connection with God. Open your heart this Lent to God's Word.

FASTING:

"When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites. They neglect their appearance, so that they may appear to others to be fasting. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward" Matthew 6:16

What areas in your life will involve fasting this year? Food and Drink are common things that we "give-up" during Lent—but what about other things: do we spend too much time with technology, games, entertainment, Facebook and social media? If you can't go cold turkey for the whole season, try giving-up one thing for one day at a time.

ALMSGIVING:

"For I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." Matthew 25:35-36

Almsgiving goes hand in hand with fasting—what we "save" in fasting (time, money, food, etc.) we "spend" in almsgiving. During Lent make an effort to volunteer at a local hunger center instead of watching TV, clean out your closet and donate clothing to the needy, visit the residents of a local nursing home, send care packages to the military — do SOMETHING that personally connects you to those less fortunate!

PALM SUNDAY

Hold your palms high as you recall the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem at church today – then continue the celebration at home.

Jesus Centerpiece: place a statue or picture of Jesus at the center of your dinner table and lay palm branches around it.

Talk about ways to make Jesus the center of your life and your faith.

Blessed Palms are respected as sacramental, place them behind the crucifix in your home

GOOD FRIDAY

This day commemorates the crucifixion, death, and burial of Jesus. It is the most solemn and sorrowful day of the Church Year.

Spend time in church: pray the Way of the Cross, attend services of the reading of the Passion, Veneration of the Cross, Seven Last Words, and Communion

Quiet time: Tradition places the events of Good Friday between 12 noon and 3:00 pm, turn off the computer or social media and read the bible account of Jesus' death.

Forgive: Imitate Jesus and reach out to someone who has hurt you. Forgive and forget!

Talk About those who have died and how we believe that, because of Jesus, we hope to rise to new life in heaven.

preparation for Easter and celebrate all that is fresh and new. Buy a Lily: The white flower heralds the resurrection of Jesus – share a plant with someone who needs to hear "good news".

HOLY WEEK PREPARATION DAYS

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

Clean the House: Think of spring housekeeping as a prayerful

Color eggs: Decorated eggs are a symbol of new life that comes with the resurrection. Try writing "Alleluia" or "Christ is Risen" on the eggs with a crayon before coloring them.

HOLY THURSDAY

This day recalls the Last Supper when Jesus washed the feet of his disciples and shared a sacred meal with them. It reminds us that we are called to serve one another. Here are some ideas:

Attend church service: Listen to the readings that mark the beginning of the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Share a meal: If your church doesn't have a community meal, plan your own with neighbors or friends.

Read and reflect: Read one of the Gospel accounts of the Last Supper and reflect on how this encounter with Jesus changed the disciples. How does it change you?

HOLY SATURDAY

This day commemorates the time of darkness and waiting when Jesus was in the tomb.

Volunteer as a family: Help decorate the church for Easter, or deliver baskets to the homebound.

Talk about the symbols of fire and water, signs of Jesus the light of the world and fountain of new life.

EASTER SUNDAY!

Celebrate the Risen Lord with the singing of the Gloria and Alleluias, the renewal of baptismal vows, a sprinkling with Easter water and receiving the Eucharist.

MAY THE ROAD RISE TO MEET YOU

St. Patrick's feast day is March 17th. Born in Scotland Patrick was kidnapped when he was a teenager and taken by barbari-ans to Ireland. He was forced into slavery for 6 months as a shepherd. He escaped and returned to his own country for a few years only to be made captive again. This only lasted 2 months and he again returned home to his parents. During this time God gave him many visions and wanted Patrick to return to Ireland in order to teach the people about God, for the worshiping of idols was greatly practiced there. Patrick went throughout the country teaching the faith to the people and baptizing them into the faith. He is commonly pictured holding a shamrock, which he used to preach to the people about the Trinity.

May the road rise to meet you,
may the wind be ever at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of his hand.

CELEBRATE THE FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH

The feast of St. Joseph falls on March 19th and is widely celebrated throughout the world. In fact, many Dioceses allow this feast day to be a break from Lenten fasts. St. Joseph is the foster father of Jesus, and chaste husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Bible pays Joseph the highest compliment: he was a "just" man. The quality meant a lot more than faithfulness in paying debts. By saying Joseph was "just," the Bible means that he was one who was completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. He became holy by opening himself totally to God The just man was simply, joyfully, wholeheartedly obedient to God—in marrying Mary, in naming Jesus, in shepherding the precious pair to Egypt, in bringing them to Nazareth, in the undetermined number of years of quiet faith and courage.

Pope Francis is a strong believer in God's dependability on St. Joseph while he is sleeping. The Pope has his own wooden Sleeping St Joseph figure that he keeps to place written prayers under every day.

Each evening, write out your prayer requests and place them under this Sleeping St. Joseph figure. While you both sleep, St. Joseph and God will be working hand-in-hand to help answer those beautiful prayers.

CONFIRMED IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

WISDOM is the first and highest gift of the Holy Spirit because it is the perfection of the theological virtue of faith. Through wisdom, we come to value properly those things which we believe through faith. The truths of Christian belief are more important than the things of this world, and wisdom helps us to order our relationship to the created world properly, loving Creation for the sake of God, rather than for its own sake.

UNDERSTANDING is the second gift of the Holy Spirit, and people sometimes have a hard time understanding (no pun intended) how it differs from wisdom. While wisdom is the desire to contemplate the things of God, understanding allows us to grasp, at least in a limited way, the very essence of the truths of the Catholic faith. Through understanding, we gain a certitude about our beliefs that moves beyond faith.

COUNSEL, the third gift, is the perfection of the virtue of prudence. Prudence can be practiced by anyone, but counsel is supernatural. Through this gift of the Holy Spirit, we are able to judge how best to act almost by intuition. Because of the gift of counsel, Christians need not fear to stand up for the truths of the faith, because the Holy Spirit will guide us in defending those truths.

FORTITUDE is ranked as the fourth gift of the Holy Spirit because it gives us the strength to follow through on the actions suggested by the gift of counsel. While fortitude is sometimes called courage, it goes beyond what we normally think of as courage. Fortitude is the virtue of the martyrs that allows them to suffer death rather than to renounce the Christian Faith.

KNOWLEDGE, the fifth gift, is often confused with both wisdom and understanding. Like wisdom, knowledge is the perfection of faith, but whereas wisdom gives us the desire to judge all things according to the truths of the faith, knowledge is the actual ability to do so. Like counsel, it is aimed at our actions in this life. In a limited way, knowledge allows us to see the circumstances of our life the way that God sees them. Through this gift of the Spirit, we can determine God's purpose for our lives and live accordingly.

PIETY, the sixth gift, is the perfection of the virtue of religion. While we tend to think of religion today as the external elements of our faith, it really means the willingness to worship and to serve God. Piety takes that willingness beyond a sense of duty so that we desire to worship God and to serve Him out of love, the way that we desire to honor our parents and do what they wish.

FEAR OF THE LORD, the seventh and final gift of the Holy Spirit is often misunderstood. We think of fear and hope as opposites, but the fear of the Lord confirms the theological virtue of hope. This gift of the Holy Spirit gives us the desire not to offend God, as well as the certainty that God will supply us the grace that we need in order to keep from offending Him. Our desire not to offend God is more than simply a sense of duty; like piety, the fear of the Lord arises out of love.

Once again, we come to the time of year when catechumens, candidates, and students receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. This important step toward full initiation as adult believers brings powerful gifts of the Holy Spirit. Read through the list at the left side of this page to welcome these graces —or to refresh your memory if you have already been confirmed!

MOSACK'S carries a wide selection of Patron Saint medals, statues, biographies and holy cards perfect for Confirmation Students and RCIA Candidates. Bibles, Prayer Books, Crucifixes, Rosaries and other inspirational items are wonderful gifts to encourage new found faith. Visit us online at www.mosacks.com for a look at our selection of Confirmation Gifts.
